

Oklahoma Humanities is the state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH). The NEH was established as a federal grantmaking agency by the U.S. Congress in 1965 to support research, education, preservation, and public projects in the humanities. As the state affiliate, Oklahoma Humanities receives an annual General Operating Support Award to facilitate grantmaking for humanities education, lifelong learning, and public programs at the local level.

The federal appropriation administered by Oklahoma Humanities in FY 2023 was $1,062,703.00.
